Council for Global Brand Building
全球化品牌信任促進會

Member Handbook • Individual

Council for Global Brand Building (CGBB) | Edition 2026 (November)

Individual membership is open to practitioners who share the Council's mission, admitted through Secretariat review, including through accredited CGBB partners such as 5R Wire. Individual membership is free and runs one year from approval.

I. Membership benefits

Individual membership • free

1. A Certificate of Membership, to be shown according to CGBB usage guidelines
2. A public CGBB member page that readers and AI assistants can check (members admitted through 5R Wire)
3. If you have your own website: a free CGBB Website Trust Credential and the CGBB Member badge, once its domain is confirmed in your member account
4. Priority access to CGBB research reports, standards developments and the member newsletter
5. Invitations to CGBB forums, closed-door exchanges and sharing sessions, online and in person
6. Access to the CGBB member network for industry exchange and partnership opportunities
7. Opportunities to join CGBB thematic research, case interviews, report review and standards discussions, according to expertise and involvement
8. A members-only line to the Secretariat, and the right to refer organisations and professionals for membership

II. Getting started

In your member account at cgbb.org/account:

1. Set your password with the email you applied with ("Sign up")
2. Add your public member page to your LinkedIn Featured section or the bio of your other channels
3. If you have your own website: confirm it, publish your Website Trust Credential and add the CGBB Member badge, under "Get set up"

III. Basic obligations

1. Endorse and observe the CGBB mission, charter and membership rules
2. Ensure application information is accurate and report any change in personal details
3. Refrain from speaking for, committing on behalf of, or acting in the name of CGBB without authorisation
4. Refrain from presenting membership as CGBB certification, rating, endorsement or guarantee
5. Show only the badge and level that your live CGBB record holds, and remove them if membership lapses
6. Maintain confidentiality of non-public information from research and member exchanges
7. Uphold the professionalism, independence and public standing of CGBB

IV. Co-building initiatives

The following are voluntary and are not conditions of membership renewal.

- Follow and share CGBB's key announcements, research outcomes and events through appropriate channels
- Take part in surveys, topic discussions or member activities as circumstances allow

This document sets out the benefits and obligations attached to CGBB membership and is intended solely to describe membership status and its scope. Membership does not constitute certification, rating, endorsement or commercial guarantee by CGBB. The CGBB Secretariat reserves the right of final interpretation.
